WIFE BEATER GETS PRISON SENTENCE

Charles S. Price Sentenced by Judge Murphy With No Alternative Fine.

OGDEN, May 14.—Charles S. Price, convicted of the charge of disturbing the peace, was sentenced by Judge Murphy in the police court yesterday to remain in jail for 93 days with no alternative fine. At the request of the city attorney, testimony was taken, although Price entered a plea of guilty. Mrs. Pearl Price, who stated she was the wife of defendant, exhibited a badly blackened eye and told the court that her husband struck her, although she was not positive that he intended to do so. She was inclined to shield her erring spouse but the court decided that so far as it was concerned, no cash fine would be imposed because, as it stated, the woman would go out and pawn her clothes to pay the fine. She was probable importune the mayor for a pardon.

SLAYER OF JOS. D. CARROLL ACQUITTED ON SHORT ORDER

OGDEN, May 14.—Florence O'Hay, the 18-year-old girl who shot and killed Joseph D. Carroll at Elko, Nev., last October, after a trial lasting nearly two weeks, was declared not guilty by the jury, after a short deliberation of 10 minutes. It was brought out at the trial that Carroll had been living with the girl for 18 months in a life of shame; had lived on the girl's earnings, robbed her of some $300, deserted her and turned her out penniless. The next time she met him she shot him. After a sensational trial she was acquitted as stated.

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, May 14.—Frank S. Johnson, Frank Martin, Thomas Monahan, Mike Riley and John Dahl, pleaded guilty to drunkenness in police court Friday and were sentenced to serve five days each in the city bastille or pay a fine of $5.
 W. L. Head, a boy who gave his age as 22 years, pleaded guilty to vagrancy and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or remain in jail for an equal number of days.
 Mike Ryan, Ed. Miller and Ed. Spencer were each sentenced to 10 days in jail or a fine of $10 on the charge of vagrancy.
 John Wilson was given a suspended sentence of 20 days on the charge of mendacity and ordered to leave the city at once.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

OGDEN, May 14.—Charging cruelty and non-support, Blanche Mead has filed suit for divorce in the district court against George A. Mead. The couple were married at Salt Lake on Oct. 29, 1905 and the complaint alleges that Mead is a gambler and is capable of earning from $75 to $100 per month. Plaintiff asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Blanche Whitney; the custody of a minor child, alimony, attorney's fees and costs of the action.

SENTENCED FOR BURGLARY.

OGDEN, May 14.—Joe French, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of third degree burglary on Thursday, was sentenced Friday morning to serve a sentence of two years in the state penitentiary at Salt Lake. He was taken to that institution by Deputy Sheriff John Murphy. French recently entered a stranger's room at the Denver roominghouse and stole a suit of clothes of the value of $30. He sold the clothes at a second hand store for $5.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

OGDEN, May 14.—With a capitalization of $100,000, the Peery hotel company filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk Friday morning. The purpose of the company is to conduct a general hotel business and the principal place of business is Ogden. The officers are Elizabeth L. H. Peery, president, Joseph S. Peery and Horace E. Peery, vice-presidents and Harold J. Peery, secretary. The treasurer is Louisa L. P. Richards form the board of directors. The capital is all paid up a portion of it by the transfer of certain real estate in Salt Lake City.
 OGDEN, May 14.—Articles of incorporation of the Challenge Stock Food & Importing company have been filed with the county clerk. The purpose of the company is to conduct a general stock food and stock importing business and the capitalization is $25,000. The officers are W. W. Garner, president and treasurer, M. L. Garner, vice-president and secretary. These with T. C. Thomas, J. C. Davis and J. A. Garner form the board of directors.

CARROLL ESTATE LOSES SUIT

OGDEN, May 14.—Judgment for $1,500 together with interest amounting to $54 was awarded to plaintiff in the case of Alice M. Kildingbury against Joseph E. E. Carroll, administrator of the estate of Joseph D. Carroll, deceased, in the district court Friday afternoon. The suit was to recover the sum of $2,250 alleged to have been loaned by plaintiff to deceased Carroll, who was shot at Elko, Nevada, by a woman of the tenderloin district.

CHAS. H. MAXWELL IS DEAD.

OGDEN, May 14.—Chas. H. Maxwell, aged 21 years, died at the Ogden General hospital Friday afternoon of meningitis after an illness of one month. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell. Two years ago he married Miss Cora Madsen, a city girl and they have been living at 2507 Grant avenue. Deceased was employed as the operator at the Globe moving picture theater and was well and favorably known in the city. The body was removed to be held pending the arrival of his father and other relatives from the east. The funeral will be held on Tuesday, the time to be announced later. Deceased was a member of the Modern Woodmen's lodge.

FUNERAL OF SAMUEL HERRICK.

OGDEN, May 14.—Funeral services over the remains of Samuel Herrick were held in the First ward meeting-house Friday afternoon. Bishop D. H. Ensign presiding. The speakers were Bishop Robert McQuarrie, President C. E. Middleton, President John H. Ensign of the Western States mission and Bishop Ensign. Fred Tout rendered the solo, "O My Father," and George Ensign sang, "I Love My Father." The services were very impressive and were well attended. Interment was made in the city cemetery. The pallbearers were the brothers and nephews of deceased.

SETTLEMENT OF DAMAGE SUIT.

OGDEN, May 14.—Rose C. Bowman, widow of James E. Bowman, who was killed near Vernalda, Mont., on Dec. 16, 1909 by the explosion of a locomotive boiler, has filed a petition in the district court for authority to settle a claim for damages with the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railroad company for $2,500.

ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS.

OGDEN, May 14.—Mrs. Chow How, a highly respected Chinese lady, died at her residence, 2745 Lincoln avenue, Friday morning of pneumonia. Deceased was 55 years of age and has resided in Ogden for the past eight years. She came from Idaho to this point. ANOTHER LIQUOR CASE WON BY SPANISH FORK Authorities Making It Hard for Law Defying Liquor Dispensers.

(Special Correspondence.)
 PROVO, May 14.—City Marshal J. T. Williams took Ralph Lawhorn to Spanish Fork yesterday to testify in a case of Spanish Fork City vs. Robert Chappel charged with selling beer to Ralph Lawhorn on April 30. A jury in Justice Frost's court brought in a verdict of guilty. Defendant was fined $200 and sentenced to 60 days in jail. It is said the city will bring another action against Chappel for selling beer to Ray Scott, another Provo boy at the same time that he sold it to Lawhorn. Young Lawhorn gave some of the beer to a young girl and is now serving a 30-day sentence in the Provo jail, for that offense.

BRIGHAM CITY.

CITY COUNCIL CONFIRMS MAYOR'S APPOINTMENTS
 (Special Correspondence.)
 BRIGHAM CITY, May 13.—At the city council meeting, Wednesday evening, the council confirmed a few more of Mayor Blackburn's appointments which have been held over since the legal holiday. The council confirmed H. L. Lillwhite as policeman; Dr. H. A. Pearce, Hyrum Standing and N. J. Nelson as the board of health; M. C. Houshouser, sexton, and J. T. Pribble, dogtax collector.

OLSEN-HANSEN NUPTIALS.

BRIGHAM CITY, May 13.—Miss Cleo Olsen of the Second ward and Mr. Mark Hansen of the Boxelder News force were married in the Salt Lake temple last Wednesday.

BRIGHAM CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

Mr. Lester Hansen returned last Monday from a two years' mission to Sweden.

Mrs. Felt from Los Angeles, California, is home visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stark.

Eight grade commencement exercises will be held in the Brigham City tabernacle this evening at 8 o'clock; there are 175 graduates in Boxelder county this year.

Mother's day was celebrated in Brigham city last Sunday. An appropriate and interesting program, prepared for the occasion, was given at the tabernacle services in the afternoon.

An appreciative audience greeted

Miss Maggie Tout and company at the opera house last Wednesday evening.
 Articles of incorporation of the Boxelder Realty company have been filed with the county clerk; the officers are: D. H. Woodland, president; W. J. Lowe, vice president; W. P. Day, secretary, and J. C. Jensen, treasurer.
 "The Rose of the Rancho," presented by the B. Y. college dramatic company of Logan, at the opera house Friday evening, was played to a full house, and although many of the young players were amateurs, it was the best play seen at the opera house for many a day. In the afternoon the company played complimentary to the old folks of Brigham City, which was very much appreciated by the veterans.

The Mrs. Cogler concert Monday evening was another treat of high class music and singing. Nearly every seat in the house was sold, which proves how much the work of Mrs. Cogler and her staff is appreciated.
 At a meeting of the leading citizens in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday day evening, the question of a weekly half-holiday was freely discussed, and Wednesday afternoon was decided upon to be the most appropriate time for stores to close.

RECENT DEATHS

MURDOCK, JOHN M.—At his home in Heber City, Wasatch county, Utah, John M. Murdock died May 6, 1910, aged 59 years, 4 months and 10 days. He was born Dec. 28, 1830, at Grasswater, Ayrshire, Scotland. He and his wife joined the church in early days and emigrated to this country in 1852 with their two children. Both of the children died while upon the Mississippi river. They suffered much privation and hunger by their boat being stranded on a sandbank for some two weeks. They lived for some years in the Third ward of Salt Lake City where Elder Murdock was counselor to the late Bishop Jacob Weiler. At the time of the war they went up into Provo valley, where they made their permanent home. They were among the first settlers of Heber, sharing in all the trials and labors of the pioneers. He was an honest, industrious citizen, a good neighbor, devoted husband and father, and a faithful Latter-day Saint, was prominent in the high priest's quorum at the time of his death, which office he had held for 45 years. He served in the Walker and Black Hawk Indian wars, and participated in the Johnston army trouble, being captain of 50 men under Maj. McArthur. He is the father of 22 children and there are 161 grandchildren and 65 great-grandchildren, nearly all of whom were near at his last sickness and death. The funeral was held in the Wasatch stake tabernacle, Tuesday, May 8. The services were conducted by President Joseph R. Murdock, J. C. Jensen and E. D. Clyde.

UNDERWOOD, SERMAN D.—At his home in Beaver, Beaver Co., Utah, on May 6, 1910, Serman D. Underwood died of paralysis. He was born Nov. 29, 1832, and served in the Federal army during the war of the rebellion, and received a commission as lieutenant of artillery in the West Virginia volunteers, and as captain of Company "K," Tenth Missouri cavalry. He was severely wounded at Springfield, Mo., Oct. 25, 1861, in the left shoulder, and suffered intensely from the wound until his death. He went to Beaver from Junction city, Kansas, in 1890, and has been more or less prominent in the political affairs of the city and county, serving as county and city treasurer for some time, and also as mayor of Beaver City for one term. Funeral services were held Tuesday at his family residence, and were very impressive.
